- ANM School, Rural Health Training Centre, Najafgarh

Rural Health Training Centre, Najafgarh is a pioneer institute for nursing education in Delhi offering Auxiliary Nurse Midwifery (A.N.M.) Diploma Course. It is controlled by Directorate General of Health Services (DGHS) and academically affiliated to Indian Nursing Council (INC) and Delhi Nursing Council (DNC). The primary objective of the Institute is to provide and promote education in the field of nursing.

The ANM School, RHTC established in 1985 with 20 & 10 students in take on alternate years as MPWF (Multi-Purpose Worker Female) recognized with Punjab Nursing Council, managed in two rooms & one Auditorium & duration of course was two years including six months internship training. In 1991 above course was renamed as ANM 10+2 (vocational) courses under CBSE & India Nursing Council with 20 student's capacity every year.

From 2012 onwards Delhi Nursing Council started two years Diploma in ANM, after 10+2. Selection for admission in ANM occurs through Combined Competitive Examination along with Lady reading Health School, Bara Hindu Rao, Delhi.

- Lady Reading Health School, Bara Hindu Rao

The First training institution for Health Visitors was started in Delhi in 1918 with 12 students under the auspices of the Countess of Dufferin Fund through the efforts mainly of Dr. M. I. Balfour, the then Secretary. Subsequently, the School became one of the centers of activity of the Lady Chelmsford League when the Dufferin fund was absorbed by the former. The Government of India sanctioned an annual grant of Rs.6, 000/-. In 1925, Lady Reading, wife of the Viceroy of the time, presented about one lakh of rupees from funds at her disposal towards the provision of a suitable building together with a model Welfare Centre for the practical training of students. Thus, the School was named after the donor.

Lady Reading Health School (LRHS), Delhi is considered as one of the pioneer institutions. In 1952 the Government of India took over the school and attached Ram Chand Lohia MCH Centre. Initially total capacity of the school was 24 Health Visitors trainees from all over India and neighboring countries. Duration of the course was one and half years for matriculates who were qualified midwives, which was replaced by two and half years integrated course for health visitor in 1954. Since then, LRHS is providing training to different categories of Nursing candidates specialization in community Health Nursing.

In the year 1985 ANM Training started with intake capacity of 40 every year. The duration of the course was 2 Years. In 1990 ANM Training converted into ANM (vocational) and duration of the course changed from 2 years to 1.5 years and minimum qualification for entrance was matriculation/10th Pass. Examination was conducted by CBSE and passed candidate were given 10+2 certificate by CBSE and ANM certificate by Punjab nursing council and then by Delhi Nursing Council. In the year 2006 the school came direct under Ministry of Health and Family welfare (MOHFW).

In the year 2012 the ANM course came under DNC (Delhi Nursing Council) and now the examining and certifying body is DNC, Intake capacity of ANM students enhanced from 20 to 40 in the year 2008. The eligibility criteria also changed from 10th pass to 12th pass. Admission process of ANM course is through Combined Entrance Examination for Lady Reading Health School and Rural Health Training Centre, Najafgarh.

FORMAT FOR SC/ST CERTIFICATE

A candidate who claims to belong to one of the Scheduled Caste or the Scheduled Tribes should submit in support of his claim an attested/certified copy of a certificate in the form given below, from the District Officer or the sub-Divisional Officer or any other officer as indicated below of the District in which his parents(or surviving parent) ordinarily reside who has been designated by the State Government concerned as competent to issue such a certificate. If both his parents are dead, the officer signing the certificate should be of the district in which the candidate himself ordinarily resides otherwise than for the purpose of his own education. Wherever photograph is an integral part of the certificate, the Commission would accept only attested photocopies of such certificates and not any other attested or true copy.
